Location 5240 Oakland Ave. , St. Louis, MO 63110

About:

The curriculum offers students the opportunity to learn the communication and decision-making skills needed to navigate relationships, avoid exploitation, and make responsible decisions about sexual behavior

Students will learn:

- Increase their comfort when talking about their bodies;
  - Increase their understanding of public and private places, activities, and language;
  - Say “no” if placed in a situation that made them uncomfortable, how to report such incidents, and to accept when someone says “no” to them;
  - Understand the importance of good hygiene and the use of hygienic tools.
